PROPOSED CHANGES TO THE EUROPEAN STUDIES DEGREE PROGRAM DEGREE PROGRAM IN THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS CHAPTER IN THE UNDERGRADUATE CATALOG 2016-2018

Type of Change Academic Change
 Degree Program Change (THECB form required)

Proposed classification Exclusive General Major

1. IF THE ANSWER TO ANY OF THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS IS YES, THE COLLEGE MUST CONSULT LINDA DICKENS, DIRECTOR OF ACCREDITATION AND ASSESSMENT, TO DETERMINE IF SACS-COC APPROVAL IS REQUIRED.

- Is this a new degree program? Yes No
- Does the program offer courses that will be taught off campus? Yes No
- Will courses in this program be delivered electronically? Yes No

2. EXPLAIN CHANGE TO DEGREE PROGRAM AND GIVE A DETAILED RATIONALE FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL CHANGE:

We realized that we needed a second option for the required classes for the EUS major, to meet the needs of students already taking the pre-1700 track and then the new track in European thought. So we added Govt. 351D, Theoretical Foundations of Modern Politics, which the CES Executive Committee felt best represented the scope of both of these tracks. The same Executive Committee felt the strong need to expand the focus of the major to incline a track that would trace the history of European thought over time, and we did this in consultation with our partners in Thomas Jefferson Center in Core Texts and Ideas, as well as our colleagues in History and Government.

3. THIS PROPOSAL INVOLVES (Please check all that apply)

- Courses in other colleges
- Courses in proposer's college that are frequently taken by students in other colleges
- Flags
- Course in the core curriculum
- Change in course sequencing for an existing program
- Courses that have to be added to the inventory
- Change in admission requirements (external or internal)
- Requirements not explicit in the catalog language (e.g., lists of acceptable courses maintained by department office)

4. SCOPE OF PROPOSED CHANGE

- a. Does this proposal impact other colleges/schools? Yes No
If yes, then how?
- b. Do you anticipate a net change in the number of students in your college? Yes No
If yes, how many more (or fewer) students do you expect?
- c. Do you anticipate a net increase (or decrease) in the number of students from outside of your college taking classes in your college? Yes No
If yes, please indicate the number of students and/or class seats involved.
- d. Do you anticipate a net increase (or decrease) in the number of students from your college taking courses in other colleges? Yes No
If yes, please indicate the number of students and/or class seats involved.

If 4 a, b, c, or d was answered with yes, please answer the following questions. If the proposal has potential budgetary impacts for another college/school, such as requiring new sections or a non-negligible increase in the number of seats offered, at least one contact must be at the college-level.

How many students do you expect to be impacted?

PROPOSED NEW CATALOG TEXT:

European Studies

Students select one of ~~two~~ three tracks: (I) European studies with a focus on pre-1700 Europe, ~~and~~ (II) European studies with a focus on post-1700 Europe, or (III) European studies with a focus on European thought. The tracks are interdisciplinary in nature and draw on courses in many departments and allow students considerable opportunity to shape their coursework around their interests.

Students majoring in European studies must complete six semester hours of upper-division coursework in one of the following languages: Czech, Danish, Dutch, French, German, Modern Greek, Italian, Norwegian, Polish, Portuguese, Serbian/Croatian, Spanish, or Swedish. With permission from the director of the Center for European Studies, however, students may study other languages for their major—such as Arabic, Persian, Hindi, Hebrew, Turkish, Russian, Latin, and ancient Greek—when an application of those language skills will significantly enhance their work as distinctly European studies scholars in their track. Courses taught in English may not be used. Courses used to fulfill the European studies language requirement will be counted toward the major.

Major

Thirty semester hours of coursework in European studies, at least twenty-four of which must be upper-division, consisting of the following. No more than nine hours of coursework counted toward the major may focus on a single country or culture.

1. European Studies 305, Introduction to European Studies
2. European Studies 350, Governments and Politics of Western Europe or Government 351D Theoretical Foundations of Modern Politics

3. Completion of one of the following tracks:
 - A. Track I: European studies with a focus on pre-1700 Europe
 - i. Three hours in each of the following two areas:
 - a. European Studies 306, Introductory Topics in European Anthropology, Geography, History, and Sociology; or European Studies 346, Topics in European Anthropology, Geography, History, and Sociology, chosen from an approved list
 - b. European Studies 307, Introductory Topics in European Culture, Literature, Art, Music, and Media; or European Studies 347, Topics in European Culture, Literature, Art, Music, and Media, chosen from an approved list
 - ii. Nine additional hours of European studies coursework chosen from an approved list on the Center's website, only three hours of which may be lower-division
 - B. Track II: European studies with a focus on post-1700 Europe
 - i. Three hours in each of the following three areas:
 - a. European Studies 306, Introductory Topics in European Anthropology, Geography, History, and Sociology; or European Studies 346, Topics in European Anthropology, Geography, History, and Sociology, chosen from an approved list
 - b. European Studies 307, Introductory Topics in European Culture, Literature, Art, Music, and Media; or European Studies 347, Topics in European Culture, Literature, Art, Music, and Media, chosen from an approved list
 - c. European Studies 308, Introductory Topics in European Economics, Government, Business, and Policy; or European Studies 348, Topics in European Economics, Government, Business, and Policy
 - ii. Six additional hours of European studies coursework chosen from an approved list on the Center's website, only three hours of which may be lower-division
 - C. Track III. European studies with a focus on European thought
 - i. Three hours in each of the following three areas:
 - a. European intellectual history or philosophy, chosen from HIS 309K or L, PHL 349, or from an approved list.
 - b. Religion, chosen from CTI 304, HIS 343, RS 304, RS 318, or from an approved list.
 - c. History of science, mathematics, technology, or medicine chosen from HIS322D, HIS322G, HIS 322M, or from an approved list.
 - ii. Six hours of additional coursework in European thought, chosen from an approved list on the Center's website, only three hours of which may be lower-division.
4. European Studies 375, Capstone Research in European Studies, in which the student prepares a thesis
5. Participation in an approved study abroad program or in an approved internship in Europe selected from a list available from the European studies faculty adviser

 The mission of the Center for Women's & Gender Studies is to create committed communities that address the challenges faced in the areas of gender, sexuality, diversity, and equity. We recognize that ending gender discrimination requires ending the related discriminations against disability, ethnicity, gender identity, race, sexuality, and socioeconomic class. We foster communities of scholars, teachers and advocates inside and outside The University of Texas at Austin through:

- Interdisciplinary research
- Undergraduate and graduate teaching
- Social advocacy
- Community partnerships

Established in 1979 by faculty B.J. Fernea and Betty Sue Flowers, the Center for Women's & Gender Studies (CWGS) faculty affiliates are drawn from the university's 18 colleges and schools. Particular strengths of the faculty include African-American studies, cultural studies, diaspora studies, feminist theories, health and social welfare, international and post-colonial feminisms, media studies, performance studies, popular culture, LGBTQ/Sexualities Studies and public policy.

The Center for Women's & Gender Studies offers a unique interdisciplinary program in Women's and Gender Studies that includes an undergraduate Bachelor of Arts and several graduate degree options.
