   3. Add that study abroad courses must be completed successfully, identified by earning credit.
      Rationale: students should not be able to fail all courses abroad and have the SAB experience count towards the degree requirement.

PROPOSED NEW CATALOG TEXT
Catalogs > Undergraduate > Red McCombs School of Business > Degrees and Programs > Bachelor of Business Administration > International Business

International Business

Recognizing the role of the United States in world affairs and the importance of international operations to American business enterprise, this major offers a combination of basic business knowledge with an interdisciplinary study of international policies and practices. The curriculum is designed to develop competency to function effectively in a specific region of the world and to prepare students for positions in global business operations, government, or international agencies in the fields of economic development and/or international trade.
The requirements of this program are:

1. The Core Curriculum requirements and the BBA Degree Requirements
2. Twelve semester hours of coursework beyond beginning proficiency in a foreign language associated with the area studies specialization used to fulfill requirement 6 below. A minimum of six of the twelve required hours must be at the upper-division level.
3. International Business 350 (may fulfill the independent inquiry flag) or IB 350S, and 378 (certain sections may fulfill the writing, independent inquiry, and global cultures flags).
4. Six semester hours chosen from the following courses: Finance 376, International Business 340S, 372, and Marketing 372 (Topic 4: Global Marketing). Other courses on the global dimensions of key business areas (e.g., “International Accounting and Taxation” or "Intercultural Management") may also be used for this requirement when available, as approved by the international business faculty adviser.
5. Three semester hours of business electives
6. Nine semester hours of upper-division coursework focused on a specific geographic region. Examples of acceptable fields of study are Latin American studies; Middle Eastern studies; Asian studies; and Russian, East European, and Eurasian studies; and specific countries within western Europe (e.g., France, Spain, Germany and others) or other areas related to the student's geographic region. All area study coursework must be approved by the international business faculty adviser.
7. All international business majors must study or intern abroad for at least one semester or summer session of no less than six weeks. Students should study or intern in a country or region associated with their foreign language and area studies specialization. Ideally, the study abroad experience should be in an immersion program that includes courses taken with local students.

The international business faculty adviser must approve all study abroad programs and area studies courses in advance. Any McCombs School program is acceptable if occurring in a country in which English is not the dominant language, with the exception of faculty-led Summer Study Abroad programs or Maymesters, which may not be used for study abroad credit by International Business majors. (The faculty-led Summer Study Abroad programs will not fulfill this requirement). In addition, most affiliated study abroad programs available through the University’s Study Abroad Office are acceptable, depending on the course of study. The international business faculty adviser must approve all study abroad programs and area studies courses in advance.

Students must earn credit for complete the equivalent of at least six semester hours during their study abroad period. Credit earned abroad may be used to fulfill other degree requirements if appropriate. An international internship in the appropriate geographic region which meets the basic internship requirements for all business majors may be used in place of the study abroad requirement with satisfactory documentation and faculty adviser approval.

Note that a student’s chosen area of language study, the geographic location of their study abroad and/or internship, and the focus of the area studies coursework must be in the same geographic region. Those studying Spanish may select either Spain or Latin America for their focus, but not both.
8. Additional elective coursework, if necessary, to provide a total of at least 120 semester hours.

International business majors should note that each student must submit information using the IB Planner for approval of language courses, area studies courses, and study abroad experience.

Person communicated with: Mark Maxwell, Actuarial Studies Program Director, Department of Mathematics, College of Natural Sciences
Date of communication: April 3 and June 20, 2016, and other times
Response: Does not impact the Actuarial Science program in terms of additional demands as students from math might take an additional McCombs course already offered. Any actuarial science course is an appropriate elective for RM Certificate students who have the prerequisites for the ACF class.

The Actuarial Science Director and College are interested in sending students to the RM Certificate Program as many already take the classes. Likewise, the RM Certificate Program will approve any Actuarial Science course as an elective class for the RM Certificate. Risk Management and Actuarial Science are very closely linked in industry, and RM is a major employer for Actuarial Science students.

Dr. Maxwell is extremely positive and reciprocally supportive, and will serve on the advisory board for the certificate.

Person communicated with: David Vandenbout, Associate Dean for Undergraduate Education, College of Natural Sciences
Date of communication: June 29, 2016
Response: “I think this looks like a good proposal. In speaking with Mark Maxwell it doesn’t seem like it will place any burden on the Actuarial program and actuarial students would be able to easily pursue the certificate without affecting their timely graduation. I have no other questions or objections.”

Person communicated with: Madeline Maxwell, Director of the Center for Dispute Resolution, Professor in Communication Studies, College of Communications
Date of communication: April 19 and May 5, 2016
Response: Dr. Maxwell is interested in working with students from the RM Certificate Program and any students are welcome to take CMS 354, CMS 371K when there are spaces available.

The RM Certificate Program will require no specific elective courses that require special arrangements for a student to enter the class. Students must have the prerequisites and be able to enroll when there are seats available.

4. Official Certificate Name: Undergraduate Certificate: Risk Management Certificate

5. Proposed Implementation Date: Fall 2018

6. CIP Code (administrative unit awarding the certificate): 52.1304 Business – Actuarial Science; Field of Study R M

8. Number of Students Expected to Receive the Certificate Each Semester: Twenty students
9. Number of Hours Required for Completion: Eighteen (18) hours

Risk Management Certificate (RMC)

The business world is increasingly faced with risks from cyber-risk to health care fraud to terrorism, identity theft and financial risks from longevity of life. These risks all have financial consequences that are recurring or crisis. The management of risk is increasingly important in the USA and worldwide. For-Profit and Not-for-Profit enterprises (from charities to government) find themselves confronting risks and the resulting financial consequences daily. Business managers from all areas of expertise need to be prepared to prevent and address risks to survive—the ultimate goal of most all enterprises.

The Risk Management Certificate provides a student with a tool kit for contemplating, identifying, prioritizing, and formulating approaches to manage varying types of risks inevitably faced. The RM Certificate allows for six hours of free electives (inside or outside of McCombs) as there are many types of risk a particular student might be faced with (e.g., financial crisis risk, natural disasters (from hurricanes, tsunami to volcanos and fires), cyber risk (from identify theft, fraud, mobile commerce risks to phishing and hacking, etc.), risk of political and other crises disrupting supply chains, terrorism and the reality that all enterprises operate in an increasingly vulnerable and connected infrastructure. Indeed, as an example, over 90% of the Fortune 500 companies have created an insurance company subsidiary designed to help them manage their risks internally (a captive insurer). This allows for both some degree of managerial control and risk transfer to protect the firm. Companies need increasing active risk management expertise to survive.

Who Should Consider The Risk Management Certificate (RMC)?

The Risk Management Certificate is designed for both business and non-business majors who expect to be in a management position, including entrepreneurs. Examples include all Business majors who plan to pursue an entry-level job in supply chain, finance, manufacturing, insurance, management information systems, marketing or other business functions. Non-business majors can be students in liberal arts, economics, actuarial science, petroleum engineering, retailing, communications, health care or students from any other discipline who want to understand the impact of risk and the management of risk for their future employer.

Risk Management Certificate Application and Coursework Requirements

The Risk Management Certificate Program is both structured and flexible to allow the student to pursue interests in discipline-specific risks as well as general risks that any enterprise might face. Admission to the program requires upper-division standing and a 2.5 GPA, and is based on students’ overall academic record. Students must apply to receive the RM Certificate at least one full semester prior to anticipated graduation.
Registration in courses does not require admission to the Risk Management Certificate Program.

At least half of the required certificate coursework (nine hours) must be completed in residence at The University of Texas at Austin. Students must contact the certificate office to request the certificate the semester before they will complete the program; by April 1 for fall, by November 1 for spring or summer. This timing facilitates the student’s ability to have a semester prior to graduation to complete necessary coursework. Students have up to one year after graduation to complete the certificate program for transcript purposes, and must have applied as per dates above. A maximum of nine hours of certificate coursework may be taken after the student has earned the undergraduate degree.

To receive the Risk Management Certificate students must comply with University Rules and Regulations and RMC Program requirements regarding satisfactorily completed coursework and degree completion.

Required Coursework for the RMC

The RMC requires eighteen semester hours of coursework as described below. Twelve hours are business coursework: six hours of risk management, three hours of accounting and three hours of finance. An additional six elective hours relevant to risk management are selected by the student, with a maximum of 3 hours allowed from the McCombs School of Business.

Required courses:

1. RM 357E Introduction to Risk Management, or URB 351.6 Introduction to Risk Management
2. RM 377 Property-Liability Risk Management and Planning, or RM 369K Managing Employee Risks and Benefits (offered in alternating Fall semesters)
4. Finance 320F Foundations of Finance (for non-business students), or Finance 357 Business Finance, or 357H Business Finance-Honors

Elective courses:

Choose two of the following courses; no more than one can be a course offered by the McCombs School of Business. Risk Management Certificate students must be able to enroll in an elective through their majors and have the required prerequisites - the RMC Program cannot grant or request exceptions to restricted courses, or to prerequisites for elective courses.

1. RM 377 Property-Liability Risk Management and Planning, or RM 369K Managing Employee Risks and Benefits (whichever was not used to fulfill the certificate requirement above)
2. ACF 329 Theory of Interest or M 329F Theory of Interest
3. Any three hours lower- or upper-division Actuarial Foundations (ACF)
4. CMS 354 Conflict Resolution (Can be taken second summer only as open enrollment is only available then – web-based course)
5. CMS 371K Practicum in Conflict Mediation (If student can access via open enrollment as majors have preference)
6. Any three hours lower- or upper-division Economics (ECO)
7. FIN 377.2 Financial Risk Management
8. Any three hours upper-division Legal Environment of Business (LEB)

13. M 339W Financial Mathematics for Actuarial Applications
14. M 349P Actuarial Statistical Estimates
15. MKT 3xx Reputational Risk and Crisis Management

Other courses may be considered for substitution, as approved by the Risk Management Certificate Program. Courses dealing with conflict resolution, health management, health infrastructure, public policy, governmental regulation, risk management, or security are likely candidates.

The student must satisfy the courses used to fulfill certificate requirements on the letter-grade basis. He or she must earn a combined grade point average of at least 2.00 in these courses.

The Supply Logistics Optimization Certificate (SLO) offers both business and non-business students an opportunity to study supply logistics using the best resources of both the McCombs School of Business and the Cockrell School of Engineering. The certificate is designed to develop supply chain and logistics business managers who have the technical expertise to interface with industrial and manufacturing engineers. For engineering students, the certificate provides supply chain and logistics management expertise, particularly for those involved in product development, process innovation, and manufacturing systems engineering. Science and engineering technology enterprises have a great demand for managers and engineers who understand business as well as the underlying science, technology, and engineering principles on which their operations are based. Employers have indicated their desire to hire students who approach the industry from a more well-rounded, interdisciplinary perspective.

The following four courses for business and non-business students are prerequisites for application to the Supply Logistics Optimization Certificate Program:
1. M 408C Differential and Integral Calculus (may fulfill the quantitative reasoning flag) and M 408D Sequences, Series, and Multivariable Calculus or the equivalent (for business and non-business students).
