2. EXPLAIN CHANGE TO DEGREE PROGRAM AND GIVE A DETAILED RATIONALE FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL CHANGE:

We are replacing French with French Studies. The “Studies” designation for the major in French indicates a curriculum that transcends traditional literature-language-culture offerings. Internships in the US and abroad, enhanced opportunities for undergraduate research, and creative integration of F C courses into the curriculum represent strategic, attractive innovations. With an emphasis on experience abroad, research and independent learning, the new major in French Studies will prepare 21st-century students to participate meaningfully and productively in the international arena. In addition, the major in French Studies offers students curricular coherence along with ease and flexibility in semester-to-semester planning. We expect this combination of features to result in increased enrollments overall and increased numbers of majors.
