Dean Randy Diehl in the College of Liberal Arts has filed with the Secretary of the Faculty Council the following proposal to change the English degree program in the College of Liberal Arts chapter in the Undergraduate Catalog, 2018-2020. The English Undergraduate Curriculum Committee approved the proposal on March 28, 2017; the Curriculum Design and Assessment Committee approved it on April 19, 2017, and the Dean and the College faculty approved it on June 5, 2017. The Secretary has classified this proposal as legislation of exclusive interest to one college or school.

The Committee on Undergraduate Degree Program Review recommended approval of the proposal on November 16, 2017, and forwarded it to the Office of the General Faculty. The Faculty Council has the authority to approve this legislation on behalf of the General Faculty. The authority to grant final approval on this legislation resides with the Provost on behalf of the President.

If no objection is filed with the Office of the General Faculty by the date specified below, the legislation will be held to have been approved by the Faculty Council. If an objection is filed within the prescribed period, the legislation will be presented to the Faculty Council at its next meeting. The objection, with reasons, must be signed by a member of the Faculty Council.

To be counted, a protest must be received in the Office of the General Faculty by December 4, 2017.

PROPOSED CHANGES TO THE ENGLISH DEGREE PROGRAM IN THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS CHAPTER IN THE UNDERGRADUATE CATALOG 2018-2020

TYPE OF CHANGE: ☒ Academic Change
☐ Degree Program Change (THECB form required)

PROPOSED CLASSIFICATION: ☒ Exclusive  ☐ General  ☐ Major

1. IF THE ANSWER TO ANY OF THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS IS YES, THE COLLEGE MUST CONSULT LINDA DICKENS, DIRECTOR OF ACCREDITATION AND ASSESSMENT, TO DETERMINE IF SACSCOC APPROVAL IS REQUIRED.

   • Is this a new degree program? Yes ☐ No ☒
   • Is this program being deleted? Yes ☐ No ☒
   • Does the program offer courses that will be taught off campus? Yes ☐ No ☒
   • Will courses in this program be delivered electronically? Yes ☐ No ☒

2. EXPLAIN CHANGE TO DEGREE PROGRAM AND GIVE A DETAILED RATIONALE FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL CHANGE:

   Major hours. While keeping the number of hours for the major the same, we are decreasing by three the number of required upper division hours to twenty-one in order to allow lower-division courses that are a content match for the Diverse Perspectives requirement to apply both toward it and the major.

   Items 1 and 2. To align with the wording of other English requirements in the catalog, as well as to allow for mid-catalog inventory additions, we are opting for a descriptive statement for these requirements, rather than an itemized list of course options. A list of course options will continue to be available online for our majors.

   Item 4. The articulation of a contemporary (1940-present) requirement in the major does not represent a significant change. For our most recent substantive revision to the English major requirements, in 2010, three period-based courses were added (pre-1630, 1630-1830, 1830-1940). At that time, we did not include a 1940-present requirement solely because our students naturally gravitate toward contemporary literature courses when completing the electives within the major, thus rendering a requirement unnecessary. What we’ve found, though, is that the absence of a formal contemporary literature requirement inaccurately signals to students (and prospective students) that our department does not value contemporary literature, a misconception we’d very much like to remedy. This requirement replaces three hours of lower- or upper-division elective formerly allowed in the major. (Those elective hours are recouped by the deletion of item 8, below.)

   Item 8. The bulk of our major requirements aim for breadth of study within English, with an additional now-nine hours of English upper-division elective targeted at building depth. Originally, this requirement intended to serve as a capstone course for English majors; however, our students’ interests within English are incredibly diverse, so much so that offering enough topics to appropriately match individual student preparation proved an impossible task, especially in light of course enrollment minimums. As a result, most of our students were forced either to opt for a more generic course that offered some practice in research but no capstone experience, or to settle for an in-depth course on a topic for which they were not sufficiently prepared or invested. In order to continue to provide substantive research opportunities for our students, our intent is to scatter additional independent inquiry-flagged courses throughout our curriculum. Since the Independent Inquiry flag requirement flag has been adopted for the Bachelor of Arts (Plan I) degree, item 8 remains something of a de facto requirement for most of our majors, as well.

Other Changes: The other changes are made in the interest of clarity and to provide direction to students. These adjustments allow the requirements to be listed in order of level (two lower-division requirements first, followed by two requirements that may be met by either lower- or upper-division coursework, followed by seven upper-division requirements) so that students who see the order of requirements as a directive will progress through the major appropriately. Our period requirements (1940-present, 1830-1940, etc.) have been reordered accordingly in order to provide a more logical chronological progression from the post-1940 requirement situated at #4.

Honors 1. Adjusted to reflect the proposed change in the major above (item 8).

Honors 2 and 3. The English Honors Program Committee agreed that moving to a single minimum grade expectation of B+ for all honors courses was both logical and prudent. Additionally, English 679HA and 679HB were replaced by English 368H and 369H in our course inventory, respectively.

Honors 5. In that sixty hours in residence are now required for any UT-Austin Bachelor of Arts degree, this statement is superfluous.
