Dean Randy L. On March 20, 2017, the Department of Classics faculty approved the proposal; on April 5, 2017, it was approved by the College of Liberal Arts (COLA) Curriculum Design and Assessment Committee and by the COLA faculty and Dean Diehl on April 24, 2017. The Secretary has classified this proposal as legislation of exclusive interest to one college or school.

The authority to grant final approval on this legislation resides with the Provost on behalf of the President.

PROPOSED CLASSIFICATION: Exclusive General Major

1. IF THE ANSWER TO ANY OF THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS IS YES, THE COLLEGE MUST CONSULT LINDA DICKENS, DIRECTOR OF ACCREDITATION AND ASSESSMENT, TO DETERMINE IF SACSCOC APPROVAL IS REQUIRED.

2. EXPLAIN CHANGE TO DEGREE PROGRAM AND GIVE A DETAILED RATIONALE FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL CHANGE:

We are making a few slight changes to the Classical Archaeology track in the Classical Studies major.

1. Change: Add Anthropology 304T Introduction to Texas Archaeology as an approved course on the Classical Archaeology track.

Rationale: Adding Anthropology 304T as another option, alongside Anthropology 304 Introduction to Archaeological Studies: Prehistoric Archaeology, expands students' choices for introductory archaeology courses and also gives an option for an introductory course in historic archaeology, which introduces our students to a wider array of methods and approaches. Anthropology 304T also exposes our students to the resources of the Texas Archaeological Resources Lab. We have already been approving this course to count via memo/petition, and would now like to formalize it counting in the catalog language.

2. Change: Editing catalog language regarding approved ancient Art History courses.

Rationale: Art History reworked their course inventory several semesters ago, discontinuing several of their ancient courses and introducing multiple new courses. We have handled this change by memo, with a list of approved Art History courses available in our advising office. Given the length of the list (sixteen courses) and the possibility that there could be additional changes to the Art History course inventory, we have opted to remove specific courses from the catalog and continue to handle this requirement with a departmental list.

3. Change: Allowing lower-division hours in the second language to count for the Classical Archaeology track.

Rationale: Both tracks of the Classical Studies majors require complete 6 hours of upper-division Latin or Greek. At the same time, the major specifically excludes any courses that count for the foreign language requirement also counting for the major. Currently, students in the Ancient History track may count lower-division hours in the second foreign language toward the twelve elective hours in their major. Classical Archaeology majors have not had this option. We would like to make the requirement more symmetric and give the option to count lower-division hours in the second language (the one not used for the foreign language requirement) to our Classical Archaeology track students as well. This change has a strong academic rationale, as one of the most crucial things any student of Classics could do for their education and graduate school preparation is add on study of an additional ancient language.
