

The University of Texas at Austin Police Oversight Committee
Membership Guidelines¹

The University of Texas at Austin Police Oversight Committee will consist of the following members. Members are chosen by the President of the University from nominations submitted in accordance with the policies below. For vacated seats, the nominator must submit at least two nominations for each open seat. The length of appointments will be made to preserve the staggered terms described below.

The Chair of the Committee is chosen by the President of the University from the voting members of the committee.

Students

Three students appointed for one-year terms. The students will be chosen from a pool of six nominees, three submitted by the President of Student Government and three by the Vice President for Student Affairs. These two nominators will confer to ensure diversity among the six total nominees.

Faculty

Three faculty members appointed for staggered three-year terms. The faculty members will be chosen from nominations submitted by the Chair of the Faculty Council. At least two nominations must be submitted for each vacant seat.

2017-2018 faculty members include:

- Richard D. Hazeltine (2015-2018)
- Mechele Dickerson (2016-2019)
- Ariel E. Duiltzky (2017-2020)

Staff

Two staff members appointed for staggered three-year terms.

- One staff member will be chosen from two nominations submitted by the Chair of the Staff Council
- One staff member will be chosen from two nominations submitted by the Associate Vice President for Human Resource Services.

A third staff member appointed annually

- Office of Institutional Equity

Ex officio

The following ex officio members will serve on the committee without vote: Vice President for University Operations, Associate Vice President for Campus Safety and Security, and the Chief of The University of Texas Police Department.
