THE SCHOLARS

SAR provides sanctuary and assistance to more than 300 threatened scholars worldwide each year.

Dr. Anna Dolidze
International Law

Dr. Dolidze fled Georgia in 2006 after experiencing intimidation, surveillance and arrest in retaliation for her open criticism of Georgian judiciary policies. SAR helped her secure positions at NYU Law School and Western University, Canada, where she later became a tenured professor. While abroad, Dr. Dolidze continued to advocate for justice and human rights in Georgia. In May 2015, she was able to return home safely to begin her new appointment as Deputy Defense Minister.

Mr. Mathé is a Congolese human rights advocate and scholar whose research on security issues during the Kivu conflict led to threats on his life. Through SAR, the University of Lausanne, Switzerland offered Mr. Mathé a position of academic refuge where he was able to pursue his PhD and reunite with his wife and son. From afar, Mr. Mathé serves as director of the Great Lakes Peace Initiative Center, an academic organization committed to promoting human rights, democracy, and good governance.

Mr. Guilain Mathé
Political Science
