Weekly Newsletter

The iSchool publishes a weekly newsletter called "This Week at the iSchool".

- The newsletter is published every Thursday morning at 11:00 am during the Fall and Spring semesters.
- All current iSchool students, faculty, and staff are automatically added to the email distribution list, but you can opt-out of the receiving the newsletter if you prefer.

Our email newsletters (and other official university communications) are sent to your official university email address. If you do not receive a newsletter, please check your spam folder or update your official university email address.

Undergraduate Newsletter

Undergraduate Student Services publishes a weekly newsletter called "The Loop".

- The newsletter is published during the Fall and Spring semesters.
- Current undergraduate students automatically receive the newsletter and select faculty/staff are added to the email distribution list upon request.

Graduate Newsletter

Graduate Student Services publishes a biweekly newsletter called "The Weekly Round Up".

- The newsletter is published every other week during the Fall and Spring semesters.
- Current graduate students automatically receive the newsletter and select faculty/staff are added to the email distribution list upon request.
Listservs

Several iSchool mailing lists are available to share news and announcements or discuss various topics.
