Using the Collaboration Stations in the Information Commons

Overview
The Collaboration Stations in the Commons are an ideal resource for working on group projects or even working alone. Each Collaboration Station has a Mac mini computer, as well as a webcam, and you can also hook up your own laptop to the large screen.

Quick Links
- URLs that people will need for this task go here
- That way people don't have to hunt for them in the walkthrough

How To
How to hook up your computer to the Collaboration Station screen.
1. Using the Remote, turn on the screen.
2. Choose the correct input.
3. Plug the HDMI cable into your computer, or use the correct dongle.
4. Turn your computer on, and adjust any display settings.

How to use the Mac mini computer at the Collaboration Station.
1. Using the Remote, turn on the screen.
2. Choose the Mac mini input.
3. You may have to wiggle the mouse or tap the spacebar to wake up the computer.
4. Login using your UTEID and password. The initial login may take a bit of time.
5. Logout of the Mac mini when you are through.

FAQ
Troubleshooting Tips
1. Common Problem (e.g. monitor screen is black)
   a. Solution: You have to plug it in
2. Common Problem (e.g. I don't know what files are in this folder)
   a. Solution: Run the following

`ls -lah`