Welcome to the home of the Management of Course Materials wiki. The purpose of this wiki is to provide faculty at the University of Texas at Austin information and resources for protecting the unauthorized use of their course materials, including unauthorized posting of the materials on websites, as well as information regarding the electronic recording of classes by students. For more information, please follow the links below or in the panel on the left. You can return to this homepage at any time by clicking the tower symbol at the top left corner of the page.
