Intellectual Entrepreneurship Consortium

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Website</th>
<th>http://www.ut-ie.com/</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Email</td>
<td>cherwitz@austin.utexas.edu</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Director</td>
<td>Richard A. Cherwitz, Ph.D.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Description</td>
<td>The mission of the Intellectual Entrepreneurship Consortium is to educate &quot;citizen-scholars&quot;—individuals who creatively utilize their intellectual capital as a lever for social good. IE is not a program, nor a compartmentalized academic unit or institute; it is an intellectual platform and educational philosophy for instigating learning across disciplinary boundaries and generating collaborations between the academy and society.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Schools/Colleges Involved | - Communication
- Liberal Arts
- Fine Arts
- Natural Sciences
- Law, Education
- Pharmacy
- Engineering
- Information
- Business
- Nursing
- Architecture
- Public Affairs
- Social Work |