Have an idea for a product or service, but not sure where to start? These resources will help you grasp the basics of commercializing your idea and building a business.

Incubators

Reaching out to one of Austin’s many business incubators can help you find the right approach to founding a business.

- Freshman Founders Launchpad
- Unltd USA
- SKU
- Economic Growth Business Incubator
- The Indus Entrepreneurs (TiE-Austin)
- Capital Factory
- Tech Ranch
- Launchlab Capital
- Thinktiv
- Austin Technology Incubator
- Emergent
- Emergent Technologies
- World Entrepreneurs Network

Blogs

Learn as much as you can from established entrepreneurs who have already gleaned valuable lessons from their successes and failures.

- Lucky7
- Austinpreneur
- Capital Factory Blog
- Thinktiv Blog
- Austin Technology Council Blog
- A Smart Bear
- Shockwave Innovations
- Tech Ranch Blog
- Austin Technology Incubator Blog
- Entrepreneurship.org Resource Center
- Economic Growth Business Incubator
- Longhorn Entrepreneurship Agency
- Food + City

Meetups/Networking

Launching a business requires more than an individual and an idea. Expand your network to find talent and exchange ideas that can help get your business off the ground.

- Austin Open Coffee
- House of Genius Austin
- Austin Hardware Startup
- Austin Learn Python Meetup
- Austin Mobile Professional Developers
- Austin PHP Meetup
- Austin Python Meetup
- Austin TechBreakfast
- Austin Unity Group
- IEEE Central Texas Section
- IxDA Austin
- STC Austin (Society for Technical Communication)
- Austin API
- AustinRB
- Austin Adobe User Group