Performance Library

The Performance Library provides parts to all Butler School of Music ensembles, and strives to provide music to the players at least two weeks before the first rehearsal. However, due to numerous circumstances, this timeframe may not be possible.

The Performance Library will email you directly when parts are ready. Please read these emails fully as additional information specific to your ensemble may be provided.

Location and Hours

The Performance Library is in MRH 2.616, and is open from 8am to 2pm, Monday through Friday.

Due to the number of students, we are only available to pass out parts for ensembles from 10am to noon, Monday through Friday. Please respect these hours as we are busy preparing music for future concerts. In addition to these hours, you may pick up parts via the Music Service Center.

Disclaimer

We strive to provide parts of the highest quality for Butler School students and do everything we can to correct any issues in the parts before we make them available. If there is something in your part that you would like us to review, please feel free to stop by the performance library during business hours, or email performance librarian CJ Johnson at cjjohnson@austin.utexas.edu.

Usage Agreement

In using parts distributed by the Performance Library, you agree to:

- Return the music in the same condition, exclusive of normal wear and tear, on the due date.
- If the music is not returned immediately following the concert, you must bring it to the Performance Library (MRH 2.616) on the next business day or email the Performance Library to for alternate arrangements.
- Pay the full current replacement value for the part(s) to The University of Texas at Austin in the event of loss or theft.

Music Returns

Due Date

Unless otherwise specified by your ensemble director and/or TA(s), all music must be returned immediately following your performance. The normal procedure is to leave the parts on your music stand at the conclusion of your performance, or return it backstage before you leave. Please consult your TA(s) for further instruction.

Penalties

If the music is not returned immediately following the concert:

- A bar will be placed on the student’s account.
- After one month, the student will be responsible for the replacement of the part(s).
